1 次の英文を読み、あとの問いに答えなさい。

① Starbucks is one of America's most popular coffee shops. There are some reasons for that. For example, you can usually find a Starbucks coffee shop near your home. Also, Starbucks sells many kinds of coffee, and you can buy hot or cold coffee in different *flavors and cup sizes. The cup sizes have names like Short (extra small), Tall (small), Grande (medium), and Venti (large).

The story of Starbucks started in 1971 in Seattle, *Washington. Three friends, Jerry Baldwin, Zev Siegel, and Gordon Bowker, opened a small coffee shop. They sold fresh coffee beans. In 1981, Howard Schultz joined the company. After a trip to Italy, Schultz had a new idea for Starbucks. When he had his first coffee in Italy, he noticed people going to coffee shops for coffee and friendship. He loved the idea. He wanted to do this in the United States.

He talked about ② his new idea to the owners of Starbucks. Baldwin was not happy about this idea. He wanted to (A) only coffee beans. In 1985, Schultz decided to open his own Italian-style coffee shop. It was a great success.

In 1987, Schultz (B) Starbucks for $3.8 million dollars. He kept the name Starbucks. It became the Starbucks we know today. Schultz wanted to open 125 Starbucks in 5 years. In 1992, there were 165 Starbucks. Everybody loved Starbucks. Today there are more than 22,000 Starbucks coffee shops around the world.
